

I work in the emergency services field and my Xm radio goes to work with me everyday. I can get up to the minute information that i can't get from regular radio. The commercials take up more time then any informaton I can get. Often the weather is a factor at sights we are working at and being able to bring it with me in the truck helps to keep my crews safe. Satellite radio is a daily part of my job I can't lose that.